PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 3:12CV00152 JLH

HAMILTON STEVENSON;
DOUBLE J TRANSPORT, LLC; and
JOHN DOES 1-10

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Counsel for the plaintiff has written the Court requesting, on behalf of both parties, an extension of time to file the Rule 26(f) report and for permission for the plaintiff to engage in discovery of Hamilton Stevenson on the identity and location of Double J Transport, LLC. A copy of the letter is attached to this Order. The letter will be treated as a motion. The motion is granted. The plaintiff is permitted to engage in discovery of Hamilton Stevenson related to the identity and location of Double J Transport, LLC. The deadline for submitting the Rule 26(f) report is extended up to and including December 4, 2012.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 26th day of September, 2012.

Re: Bill Elliott, as Administrator of the Estate of Kelly Elliot, Deceased v.
Hamilton Stevenson, et al; U.S. District Court No.: 3:12-CV-00152-JLH

Your Honor,

On September 19, 2012, Richard Lusby, attorney for Hamilton Stevenson, and I conferred regarding Rule 26(f) issues. The Rule 26(f) report is currently due on October 4, 2012.

Unfortunately, Plaintiff's efforts to locate Double J Transport, LLC and serve it with process continue to be unfruitful.

Because Double J has not been served, both Richard Lusby and myself agree that extending the deadline for the submitting a Rule 26(f) report would be appropriate. The parties have also agreed that the prohibition on discovery prior to the Rule 26(f) conference would not prohibit discovery from separate Defendant, Hamilton Stevenson, related to the identity and location of Double J Transport, LLC.

Sincerely,

Dustin H. Jones
